Corporation Proceedings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Commissioners, held this evening.

Present—Col. Wm. H. Harrison, Mayor.

Messrs. C. M. Farriss, D. L. Royster, C. B. Root, A. Sorrell, P. Overby, N. S. Harp, Dr. W. H. McKee, R. W. Haywood, and H. Mahler, Commissioners.

Dr. McKee, chairman of committee on revisal of City charter and salaries, and made the following report, which was read, accepted and committee discharged:

RALEIGH, Jan. 31, 1866.

The committee on salaries and revisal of the City charter report—that they find the funded debt of the city to be $54,000, with a floating debt of $2,000. $47,000 of this is a part of the subscription to the Chatham and Coalfield railroad; the original amount being 50,000, which was authorized by the citizens themselves. These bonds were issued by the city and paid over to the Treasurer of the State, who issued the same amount of State bonds, and paid them over to the President of the Railroad, to be sold for his benefit, and to pay the subscription of the city. It is held by some that the city is no longer liable for their redemption, as the Convention, by a special ordinance repudiated all bonds or debts contracted during the war. This is a matter which the committee are unable to determine, and it is for the Legislature hereafter to decide. It is the duty, however, of the city to provide for the payment of the interest until a legal decision can be had.

The charter is under consideration, and is now in the hands of the City Attorney for legal correction. It will be reported to the Board before it will be presented to the Legislature.

The committee suggest for the consideration of the Board, the following salaries for the present year:

Mayor, $1,000; Clerk, $250; Treasurer, $250; Principal Constable, $60 per month; Assistant Constables, $50; watchmen, $1 50 per night; street hands, $1 50 per day, and 2½ per cent. for collecting taxes.

The committee submit to the Board the following table to show what is likely to be the expenses of the City government for the present year:

Interest on bonded debt,	$3,240
Salaries,	4,020
Watchmen,	7,200
Hands on Street,	3,000
Wagon hire and stone,	3,000
Lights,	1,200
Pumps,	2,500
Graveyard,	300
Contingencies,	6,000
Total.	$30,460

In making the present list, the committee were governed by the salaries paid last year. There are at this time four constables in the employ of the city; heretofore, two only were required. The four are now necessary and should be continued for the present. The number may be reduced to two after civil law is fully established; and the night watch may be further reduced in a few months, which will lessen the expenditures several thousand dollars.

In laying the incoming tax for the present year, it is the duty of the Board to provide an adequate amount to defray the current expenses, and interest on the bonds. From the statement which is here submitted, it will be seen that the sum of $30,000 will have to be raised, to answer the purpose.

Retrenchment is earnestly recommended, and it is for the Board to determine what means may be taken to accomplish so important a matter, involving the credit and prosperity of the city.

W. H. McKEE,
C. M. FARRISS,
C. B. ROOT.

The following accounts were allowed:

W. C. Emory, laid over from last meeting,	$ 63 75
Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker, for brick,	85 12
Messrs. Briggs & Dodd,	109 07
Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co.,	26 00
Sundry accounts of night watch,	918 00
W. C. Emory, pump stock,	24 00

On motion of Dr. McKee, ordered that the Mayor be requested to attend the meeting of the stockholders of the Chatham Coalfield Railroad Co., to be held on Thursday, Feb. 1.

The Board proceeded to fix salaries of officers, for 1866, viz:

Mayor, per annum,	$1,000 00
Clerk, "	250 00
Treasurer "	250 00
Chief Constable, per month,	60 00
Assistant Constable "	50 00
Watchman, per night,	1 50
Street hands, per day,	1 50

2½ per cent allowed for collecting city taxes.

J. J. Christophers was elected City Collector.

Mr. C. W. Beeves petitioned the Board to be recommended to County Court to have license to retail spirituous liquors at his place of business near the R. & G. Railroad depot, which was granted.

Mr. S. Bryan resigned his situation as night watch, and on motion of Dr. McKee, ordered that the vacancy remain for the present.

On motion of Mr. Root, ordered that the Mayor be requested to notify the North Carolina R. R. Co., to have the street and crossings around the depot put in good order, and if they fail to comply, enter suit against them; and that the commissioners from Western ward, see that it is properly done.

Mr. Farris offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That all hogs and goats found running at large in the city, shall be impounded, and a tax of $1 be imposed on each and every hog or goat so taken up, on and after the 15th day of February.

A communication was received and read from Mr. Albert Johnson, in regard to to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Co., removing the warehouse erected in the street near Mr. Litchford's residence, which was, on motion, laid on the table until the next regular meeting.

On motion of Dr. McKee, ordered that Mr. J. B. Suggs be allowed to remove his bake house, to the lower part of his lot, by obtaining the consent of Mrs. Clayton, who has a building near by.

On motion of Mr. Overby, ordered that in future no suction shall be held on Fayetteville St., and any person violating the above, shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars, at the discretion of the Mayor.

On motion of Dr. McKee the Board adjourned.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1866 NO. 149.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr Pulaski Cowper and Mr James A. Moore, late Teller of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Cowper & Moore, who will settle up the business of Baker, Cowper & Co.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $500, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 244 33.

In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

PROSPECTUS

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	35 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the

The North Carolina Presbyterian

will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from the rown stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,

OR

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years. It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAily expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes, whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country, and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

Orders respectfully solicited.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N C., November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of

Whitford, Dill & Co.,

for the transaction of a Shipping and General

Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandize, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

THE DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday, February 3, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

The Freedman's Code.

We have not been able to give the labors of the Commission on the Freedmen's Code, even a cursory examination. It seems to have been prepared with much care, and bears the marks of the research and learning of the senior Commissioner, Mr. Moore, upon whom and Mr. Mason, the chief labor must have fallen, Mr. Donnell's ill-health and absence from the city, having necessarily prevented his devoting much time to it.

Our readers will have perceived that the bill first in order and importance, has been under discussion in the House, in Committee of the Whole, for several days, and we judge it will yet occupy several more. The great point of difficulty so far, lies in fixing the status of the colored race among us, and conferring upon them the right to give evidence in our Courts, in matters in which white people are concerned. So far, the defence of this clause of the bill, has fallen mainly upon Mr. Speaker Phillips, who has with much force and ability urged the claim of the colored race to this privilege, as a right especially as freemen, if not a natural right; as but simple justice to them for the protection of their persons and property; as a means of meeting the requisitions of the government and as the only hope of early relief from military rule and the Freedmen's Bureau. Mr. McNair, who moved the striking out of the clause, opposed the bestowing this right upon the negro, because of his incapacity,—his great moral obtusness and obliquity—the danger to the white race of placing such a weapon in the hands of such people, and the impossibility of arriving at truth from that source. Other objections in brief have been offered. Mr. Jenkins of Warren, on Thursday, made the most elaborate speech which has yet been made in opposition, in which he replied seriatim to the arguments of Mr. Phillips. Mr. J. would not admit that the freedman was a citizen, or possessed the necessary attributes for a citizen—questioned the correctness of the assertion that the Supreme Court had ever so decided—regarded the demand upon the South made by the Northern States as illiberal and unjust, until they had first granted the same privilege to the blacks of the North, and urged that the continuance of the military power and the Freedmen's Bureau, did not seem to depend upon a favorable action in this State upon the question, inasmuch as it had been granted in other Southern States, and they were still continued in them. Mr. Phillip's rejoinder was marked by his usual force and with unusual earnestness, urging the measure as a christian duty, and as promising the approbation of the government, and the removal of the disabilities the State now suffers.

The discussion on yesterday, we are told, was highly interesting. Mr. Jenkins again replied to Mr. Phillips. Mr. McNair and Mr. Barnett followed in favor of striking out, and Messrs. McKay and Hutchison followed in opposition, and Mr. Phillips closed the debate in a speech of much power.

We regret that we are prevented from attending upon the discussion. We regard this as the great question of the session, and it is every way desirable that the Legislature should come to a wise and harmonious action upon it, and that whatever decision may be made, the people should be fully informed of the reasons which influence the action of the body.

Small as our space is at present, it would afford us pleasure, to spread before our readers, one or two speeches on both sides, embodying the pith of what may be said pro and con.

The Legislature.

The Senate on yesterday it will be seen, passed the report of the minority of the Committee to whom was referred the question, whether the session of the Legislature which closed on the 18th. of Dec. last, was a distinct session of itself. The Senate decided that, that was a distinct session, and that the one called by the Governor was also a distinct session, closing on the 3rd. inst. Several bills of interest as will be seen by the proceedings, were also acted upon.

In the House, the action was prompt on various propositions. The chief matter of interest however, was the debate on the Freedmen's Code, a report of which appears in the proceedings.

The Mails.

The obliging Postmaster at Chapel Hill informs us of the continued irregularity of the Sentinel. He suggests that the direction of the Sentinel, using slips, is found injurious, and that there being no Postmaster at Durham's accounts somewhat for delay. We have one of the most experienced mailing clerks in the city, and he now directs the papers with ink, without using slips, and our mails never fail to reach the Post Office here in full time for the trains. Our friends will see from this, that we are doing our whole duty to secure regularity in our paper.—Every suggestion made to us by the Postmasters we have readily adopted, and now if our paper does not go regularly, whose fault will it be?

It is stated that at a recent meeting of the French cabinet, nearly all Napoleon's ministers urged a speedy evacuation of Mexico.

Congress and the President.

Congress has been in session for two months; most of the time has been spent in the presentation and discussion of matters bearing upon reconstruction, indicating upon the part of the majority, the most violent and severe retaliatory measures upon the revolutionists, and a determination to make direct issue with President Johnson and his policy. At one time, the public mind has been excited by rumors of an entire separation between the President and the Radical wing of the Republican party, and then again the public were assured of the best feeling between them. The President in the meantime has wonderfully maintained his equanimity under great provocations, arising from the abuse of such men as Stevens, and threats of impeachment from various sources. Nothing so far, seems to have moved him from his convictions and purposes to pursue to the end, his reconstruction policy. Yet the delays and adroit manœuverings of the Radical faction leave much doubt upon the public mind as to the issue.

Hence the South is kept in a state of incertitude and restlessness altogether prejudicial to economical enterprises, and positively unfitting the Southern people for the cultivation of those feelings of amity and friendship, which are so neccessary to the harmony and solidarity of the Union.

Acting upon the supposition that the North really desired a restoration of the Union, immediately upon the laying down of their arms, every Southern man who felt that the country was still a home for him and the government a protector, at once turned his thoughts to the retrieving of his fortunes and the recuperating of the country. Confiding still in the magnanimity and integrity of the President and the great body of the Northern people, they turn deaf ears to the persuasions and inducements presented to seek a home in other climes. Yet it need not be concealed, that the course of the Radical majority is daily weakening the strong ligaments which have bound them with hooks of steel to their home and country, and makes many cast a wistful look to distant lands which promise peace, harmony and prosperity, for themselves and their children, when hoary hairs cover their heads.

Upon all such, let us urge a calm trust in Providence, who controls the affairs of nations as of individuals, and a reliance upon the good intentions of the President and those who support him, to bring us out of the furnace.—Strange and inscrutable as the ways of Providence have hitherto been towards us, yet let us take courage and remember,

> "God moves in a mysterious way,
> His wonders to perform,
> He plants his footsteps in the sea,
> And rides upon the storm
> Deep in unfathomable mines,
> Of never failing skill,
> He treasures up his bright designs
> And works his sovereign will.
> His purposes will ripen fast,
> Unfolding every hour,
> The bud may have a bitter taste,
> But sweet will be the flower." &c.

Civil Law.

The Wilmington Journal asks—when will civil law be established in our midst?

We presume that every citizen of the State desires this, and we are not uncharitable enough to believe, that the officers and soldiers of the army and of the Bureau, do not also desire it.

Our citizens desire it, for various reasons.—In order to the more effectual prevention of crime—the greater security to life and property, and the general anxiety to be relieved from all further tokens of distrust and hostility on the part of the government. Some of our own presses and people as well as those connected with the army, affect to believe, or really do believe, that the South is not yet enough whipped—not sufficiently subdued. We demur to the charge. We have not had an opportunity to show how thoroughly we were whipped.—From the day of the surrender, when hostilities were declared to be at an end, we have been forced to witness daily the evidence, that hostility to us was not at an end. It is a poor way to convince a fellow that you are at peace with him, to hold him down and ever and anon, to poke him in the ribs or over the face and eyes. That has been about the condition of the South for the last ten months. And this too, after we have complied with every requisition which the President has made of us.

Now we appeal to all objectors, if this state of things is favorable to the exhibition of the utmost submission, contentment and satisfaction at our condition? Is it surprising that there are occasional indications of restiveness and discontent? Is it not surprising that there has not been more? And yet these are not evidences of hostility or disloyalty to the government. Take the case of your own child as an illustration. He has offended, and has been severely chastised. But he manifests a little stubbornness. To cure that, would you tie him to a bed post to check his sulkiness, or would you say, now be careful not to do so again, and let him go? Would not the latter be the most effective method of curing him? And would you charge the manifestation of stubbornness in your child, to hostility to you?

We plead no justification for disloyalty—no immunity for those who willfully and wantonly oppose authority and law. These should be punished, unless their acts are palliated by sheer ignorance. But we ask, are not our people judged uncharitably, when every manifestation of pluck or resentment, is charged to disloyalty? Are not those who thus assail the loyalty of the people, because of slight instances of opposition, too rigid, too illiberal in their judgments? Is it not still worse, when these assaults are made purely upon the ground of differences in political opinion? Let men reason a little.

CITY MATTERS.—The proceedings of the last meeting of the City Council will be found on our first page.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Jan. 2.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Smedes, of the Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Wiggins, from the Committee on Finance to whom was referred the bill relating to bonds on marriage lisence reported back the same, and recommended it be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Winstead from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances to whom was referred the bill relative to building a Penitentiary and work houses, reported back the same recommending that it do not pass.

Mr. Bynum, from the joint standing committee to whom was referred the bill imposing a fine on such persons, as carry pistols on their persons without a lisence, reported back the same, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Leach, from the Committee on Banks and Currency, to whom was referred the bill for the relief of the people of the State authorizing the Banks of the State to subscribe for stock in the National Bank reported back the same, with a recommendation that it do pass.

Mr. Morehead, introduced a bill giving original jurisdiction to the Supreme Court in certain cases, read first time, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Howard, the vote by which bill the to amend the Charter of the town of Fayetteville was rejected on yesterday, was reconsidered, and the first section authorizing the mayor to issue certificates of indebtedness was stricken out.

On motion of Mr. Wiggins, a message was sent to the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of two Trustees, for the University of North Carolina.

A message from the House transmitting a message from the Governor with a report from the trustees of the University of North Carolina, which was referred to the committee on finance.

Also a message concurring in the proposition from the Senate to go forthwith into the election of two additional trustees for the University of North Carolina, and the Senate proceeded to vote by ballot as follows:

Bynum, 32, Hyman, 19; Jenkins, 17; Howard, 3; Atkinson, 3; Jones 4; Scattering 10.

A message from the House was received transmitting the following resolutions and bills:

A resolution making an appropriation for the Insane Asylum. A resolution appointing a committee to look into the condition of the Albemarle and Chesepeake Canal Company. A bill for the protection of grapes and other fruits. A bill to amend the charter of the Macon Turnpike Company. Rererred to the committee on Cherokee lands.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the special order being the reports of the majority and minority of the special committee on the present status of the General Assembly, was taken up, and an able and lengthy debate ensued.

Mr. Wilson argued with much force in support of the majority report, urging by many facts and arguments, that the present session of the General Assembly was a continuation of the previous session. Mr. Howard spoke in support of the majority report, but differed in some points with the previous speaker. Mr. Bynum warmly supported the report of the minority. After adopting some verbal amendments to the resolutions proposed by the minority, on motion of Mr. Bynum, the rules were suspended, and the resolutions passed their final reading as follows:

1. Resolved by this General Assembly, the House of Commons concurring, That the sitting of this General Assembly, which began on the 27th day of November, 1865, and terminated by adjournment on the 18th December, 1865, constitutes and was intended, and is hereby declared to be one session of this General Assembly.

2. Resolved, That the sitting of this General Assembly, convened by the proclamation of the Governor on the 18th of January, 1866, constitutes, and is hereby declared to be one session of the General Assembly.

3. Resolved, That the present session of the General Assembly be brought to a close on the third day of February, 1866, by adjournment, to meet again on the 5th day of February, 1866.

4. Resolved, That the unfinished business depending in the two Houses of the General Assembly on the adjournment at the close of the present session, shall be continued over and resumed at the next session, which is to meet on the 5th day of February, 1866, as if there had been no adjournment.

A message from the House was received declining the proposition of the Senate, to unite the N. C. and Atlantic Rail Roads. On motion of Mr. Arendell, the answer of the House was laid on the table.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 2, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Aldert Smedes D. D., of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read, and approved.

Mr. Paschall introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire whether any, and what relief, can be provided by Legislative action for guardians and others acting in a fiduciary capacity, from liabilities for losses arising out of investments in the bonds and other securities of the Confederate States, and of this State, issued during the late war, and that they report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Blythe introduced a bill to perpetuate liens upon real estate. Referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to incorporate the North Carolina Emigration company, passed second and third readings under a suspension of the rules.

A bill to enlarge the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, was laid on the table on second reading, under an adverse report from the committee on the Judiciary.

A bill to punish breaking into a house in the day time, was rejected on second reading.

A bill to amend Chapter 114 Revised Code, (in relation to usury.) Laid on the table, there being another bill of like nature, heretofore referred and ordered to be printed.

A bill to amend 30th section, 54th Chapter, Revised Code, was laid on the table on second Reading.

"A bill to incorporate the English and American Wool, and Vine-growing, Manufacturing, Mining and Agricultural Association in the United States of America" was put on its second reading.

Mr. Henry, of Bertie, moved that the bill be amended by providing that a majority of the directors of this corporation shall be resident citizens of North Carolina. Not agreed to, ayes 37; nays 41.

Mr. Henry, moved to amend by requiring the location of all of the offices of this corporation, in the State of North Carolina. Not agreed to.

Mr. Wilson, opposed the passage of the bill. He was unwilling to encourage wholesale emigration. He thought such an influx of foreigners would be detrimental to the best interest of the State.

Mr. Hoke said he had no interest in the bill, further than the desire that all should feel to introduce a strong, reliable laboring element into the State. There was a general conviction of the existence of such necessity, as no reliance could be placed upon negroes as a laboring class.

The bill, on motion of Mr. Baxter, was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

"A bill to repeal an act authorizing the President and Directors of the Literary Fund to elect a Treasurer and prescribe his duties," passed its second and third readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Yellowly, (by leave,) introduced "a bill to amend the charter of the town of Greenville."

Mr. Russell, "a bill to regulate the pleadings in the courts of law in this State." Referred to the committee on the stay law.

Mr. McDonald, a resolution, that the committee on Finance be instructed to enquire and report as to the expediency of amending the existing law, granting time to persons whose land has been sold for taxes in which to redeem the same, as to extend the term of redemption from one to three years. Adopted.

A message was recieved from the Senate, proposing to raise a joint select committee, to consider the expediency of consolidating the North Carolina Railroad and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. The House refused concurrence, and, on motion of Mr. Manly, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to refer the matter to the joint standing committee on Railroads.

The House concurred in a message from the Senate, proposing to elect forthwith two Trustees of the University.

The names of Hon. D. G. Fowle, Dr. E. Benbow, Col. Yellowley and P. Horton Esq., were withdrawn from nomination.

Mr. Nicks, nominated H. M. Waugh, Esq.

The House then proceeded to vote viva voce.

The following engrossed resolutions had their first reading and were referred, viz:

A resolution in favor of Drury King, a resolution to furnish the Revised Code to Clerks who have not been heretofore supplied, and a resolution in relation to the Public Square.

Mr. Hoke introduced a bill to create a State Agent. Referred to the committee on Federal relations.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Pursuant to order the House, at 12 o'clock M., resolved into committee of the whole, and resumed consideration of the bill concerning Negroes, Indians and persons of color or of mixed blood.

Mr. Rayner was again called to the chair, and the question recurring on the motion of Mr. McNair to strike out the 11th section of the bill.

Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, replied at length to the remarks made by Mr. Phillips on yesterday. He said the true reason of the exclusion of the negro from the witness stand, heretofore, was to be found in his ignorance and mendacity.—His newly acquired freedom had not qualified him for the intelligent exercise of this franchise, but had on the contrary still further incapacited him. Cases of individual hardship necessarily arouse at times from the exclusion of negro testimony, but the relief afforded in such instances would by no means counterbalance the universal evils which would follow the admission of such testimony in courts of justice.

Mr. McNair followed in support of the motion to strike out.

Mr. Barnett said:

It was not my purpose to throw a single obstacle in the way of the reconstruction of this Union, a Union once powerful in name, in sentiment, and in heart, nor indeed do I rise to detain the action of this Committee but for one moment. We are told, Mr. Chairman, that if we desire that North Carolina shall again resume her position as one of the States of the United States, it is necessary that we shall adopt such a law as is inculcated in this eleventh section,—we are told, if we desire that the military, that the Freedmen's Bureau shou d be removed, it is essentially necessary to adopt this section as a law. By whom is this said?—Does President Johnson in his liberal reconstruction policy make any such allusion? Not that I am aware. By whom then is this said? By the extremists—the radicals, who have the numerical strength in the United States Congress, and knowing that fact, seem desirous to crush us in the very dust of humanity. Have we any assurance that by adopting this as a law, we will be rid of the military and get rid of this Freedmen's Bureau? No sir. But assure us of that fact, and I for one, Mr. Chairman, would be willing to adopt any code of laws that might be designated, except the sacrifice of honor. But assure us of the fact, that by adopting this section, the civil law would prevail throughout this old peace loving State, I certainly should vote for it. But till I have such an assurance, I must confess that I will be seriously affected with, what is called the sulks.—But Mr. Chairman, if the worst comes to the worst, and I find that nothing else will do but to swallow the whole of this Freedman's Code, I shall propose to take my part of it in broken dozes, and doze No 1, I propose to waive for the present this eleventh section.

Mr. McKay thought the admission of negro evidence in courts of justice followed, as a necessary consequence, the abolition of slavery.—He urged an acquiescence in this necessity, both as a matter of policy, and of sheer justice. By according to the freedman the right to testify, we would sooner be rid of the Freedmen's Bureau. The expense of such an establishment, when rendered unnecessary, by our giving the negro access to the courts of justice, would lead to its speedy removal. Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama had already adopted this policy, and we had no option but to follow.

Mr. Hutchison also opposed the motion. He was for conceding to the negro the right to testify as a matter of justice, and while he had no idea that such action would lead to a speedy removal of the Freedmen's Bureau, he honestly believed that this grant would be beneficial alike to the white man and the negro. He had no fear that the grant of the right to testify, would lead to either social or political equality, although the demand for its concession by the radical republicans of the North, was doubtless intended as an entering wedge to the successful agitation of the question of negro suffrage. The idea of social or political equality with negroes, was an abomination and loathing to the Southern Anglo Saxon. This aversion was a predominent sentiment at the North, as shown by the votes of New York and Illinois in the Autumn of 1860 and more recently, when the question of negro suffrage was agitated in the State of Connecticut.

Mr. Phillips again addressed the committee in reply to Messrs. Jenkins and McNair, and at the close of his remarks the committee rose, reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again on Monday next.

Mr. Gaines, from the committee that superintended the election of Trustees of the University, reported that there had been no election.

The House then adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

For the Sentinel

MESSRS. EDITORS:—While the Radicals claim we have no political rights under the government of the United States, we have an interest in their legislation, so far as it foreshadows the future destiny of the South. Though we are denied the privileges of freemen, as a penalty for revolution, it behooves us a people, to prepare for the future, and with one voice, cheer on that band of patriots, who are nobly contending for the supremacy of the Constitution against unprincipled fanatics, who, have ingeniously perverted that sacred instrument, under the guise of Union, to base and sordid purposes. Now, there is no magic in that word Union; we only value it as a secondary means, subordinate to the Constitution, for preserving the liberties and happiness of the whole people. The pristine purity of the Constitution of 1787 should be our guide; trample that under foot, and the Union will soon become a throne for another Napoleon.

Marriage itself is just and honorable—but the marriages of Mezentius were not so esteemed. The marriage of Sinbad the sailor, with the corpse of his deceased wife, was an union and just such an union as this will be, if the radical party gains the ascendancy over the true patriots of the land. The genius of America would indeed shriek at the downfall of constitutional liberty—with a blind and fanatical mob leading the fortunes of this Republic, who even now, with the chains around them, are howling, with their revengeful spirit for the oppression of a weak and powerless people. But we should await the issue of events "unawed by power, and unappalled by fear," remembering

> ——Ti the scum
> That rises upmost, when the nation boils."

Truly, the people of the South would be in a condition worse than Egyptian bondage, which succeeded the downfall of monarchy. Despotism would finally be established upon the ruins of the Republic, and the people will find out, when too late, that they have been deluded and enslaved by those, who, under the false name of liberty, have destroyed their rights, and bound them in slavery. Force and violence will be resorted to, reason will be dethroned, and, instead of a government in the hands of the people we will become an army of soldiers, and the power of a military despotism in the hands of one person. The judiciary of the country will be prostrated before the overwhelming power of Radical edicts, and that wise and useful code of civil regulations, which defends and protects the lives of the people, will give place to the bulletins of an individual, in whose hands a blind and infuriated mob will have placed the sceptre of an horitty. The iron despotism, which followed the downfall of the Bourbon dynasty, was not built up in a day. That there were abuses of the monarchy, that called for redress, is true. The crown of France had accumulated unjust powers to itself; the rights of the people were overlooked in a long reign of monarchy, the multiplication of abuses had gradually opened the eyes of their subjects to a sense of their wrongs. They were taught to consider the means of redress, first, by men who were plotting for their own interest. The first exhibition of popular discontent was founded upon a just and reasonable cause. The crown was exercising powers illegal in their character, usurpation had reared its hydra head, and the people were disposed to check its progress without encroaching upon the legitimate powers of the crown itself. This was their object, but the fatal extremes, to which it was carried, evinces the danger to be apprehended from popular commotions in any government, and the consequences which ensued—the French revolution—is another proof, that when the people blindly throw themselves under the guidance of evil, designing men, who boast their regard for the people's rights, they bring upon themselves, in a most hideous form, the very evils they endeavored to rid themselves of. So it was seen and felt in France, so will it be in this republic, when the fury of the people will have been gotten up by unprincipled leaders. We fear that such is peculiarly applicable to the present crisis. The only danger, however, to be feared, is from the radical party, who are for engrafting their traitorous doctrines of negro rights and negro equality upon the constitution of this government, when, from the institution of the passover, to the latest experience of man, it would be found that no two distinct peoples could ever occupy the same territory, under the same government, except in the relation of master and bondman. The very men, who are urging these doctrines upon this people, are cowardly seeking revenge. That is the sole motive which actuates the leaders of the Radical party, to cast negro suffrage upon the people of the South.

It is that Puritan blood, where greatest virtues hang upon their record as the darkest of crimes, where chivalry persecutes the powerless, and heeds not the call of helpless woman. May the true patriots of the land, stand by the constitution of our fathers, come weal or woe. Let us cling to that charter of American liberty, for without it, the Union is but a farce, a sceptre in the hands of a tyrant, and may it be said of those true patriots, who have sounded the alarm, as Sallust does of the exploits of Rome "Egregiam virtutem paucorum civium cuncta patiavisse," he goes on to add however. "Sed post quam cura atque desidio civitas corrupta est, rursus Republica magnitudine qua, vitia sustentebat," just so with us, while the virtues of a few may save the Republic, we cannot rely on the people's power to sustain the vices and corruptions of our rulers. If victory should perch upon the banner of radical treason, every American patriot true to the interest of his country, and faithful to the constitution of his fathers, would be forever excluded from the honors and emoluments of this government, which would be reserved for those, who have qualified themselves for them by political prostitution, and obtained the helm of government by their boasted love for the Union and the people's rights.

Be not deceived, the "old ship of state" which six months ago we thought was safely anchored in her moorings, is still reeling amid the waves and billows of fanatical dissensions, and for aught we know may find a Charybdis instead of a Mt. Arrarat. The very men, who were foremost in urging a suppression of the late revolution, are now striking at the very vitals of American liberty. Power is the order of the day, and with sacrilegious hands, they are endeavoring to snatch the constitution from the hands of its legal guardians, the only check to monarchial power. They have long since ignored concurrent majorities, the only check for the minority; and one of the first principles inculcated by that sacred instrument. I am in hopes our noble pilot, will be able to steer clear of point Amalgamation, and leave, Stephens and Sumner, to take care of their adopted brothers. The old ship is pretty well loaded now, and if she takes in Sumner's negro babies, we may look out for squalls. I have no objection to Mr. Johnson launching the barque Colonization, with clearance for Liberia, where, our quondam countrymen, might find congenial spirits to soothe their declining years. In conclusion, Messrs. Editors, let us look to the future, and with heart and hand sacredly maintain the constitution of our fathers, and heed no longer the syren call of daring profligates and insidious hypocrites, who, professing devoted love for their country, would rise to power on her ruins. Let us heed the prophetic admonition of Washington, which applies forcibly to the present time, when, in speaking of the liberties of the people, he says: "One method of assault, may be to effect, in the form of the Constitution, alterations which will impair the energy of the system, and thus to undermine what cannot be directly overthrown." Such, sir, was the language of that good and great man, some seventy years ago, and men who have by force of power preserved the Union; have glaringly neglected the precepts of "the Father of his country," the fruits of which will be as poisonous to the republic, as the deadly shades of the Upas tree is to the unfortunate traveller. The sombre cloud of fanaticism may yet be pierced by the brilliant sun of truth, and will burst in all its horrors upon the heads of its unprincipled advocates.

Special Meeting of the Stockholders of the Chatham Railroad Company.

The stockholders of the Chatham Railroad Company held a meeting, pursuant to public notice at the office of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 1st of February, 1866.

On motion of Kemp P. Battle, Paul C. Cameron was called to the Chair, and W. W. Vass appointed Secretary.

On motion, W. W. Vass and J. M. Heck were appointed to verify proxies and ascertain the amount of stock represented, who subsequently reported that there were represented in person 227 shares, by proxy 6,613 shares, total 6,840—being a majority of the whole capital stock of the Company.

Whereupon, the Chair announced that the meeting was organized for the transaction of business.

K. P. Battle, President of the Company, explained the object of the meeting to be to take into consideration the propriety of reducing the present capital stock of the Company, to such an amount that other parties can be induced to subscribe the necessary amount of stock to complete the road; that such a reduction of stock ought to be made in justice to subsequent subscribers.

Mr. Battle then moved that a committee of five be appointed to report an equitable system of scaling the capital stock, which was carried, and the chair appointed K. P. Battle, Hon. N. Boyden, W. H. Harrison, W. J. Hawkins and Robt. W. Lassiter.

The committee, after consultation, reported that the actual value of the Road was at least $200,000, and recommended that the capital stock ($910,900) be divided by 4½—the quotient to be the amount of the capital stock in future, and the share of each stockholder be scaled proportionately.

On the motion to adopt the report of the committee, a stock vote was called for, and the report passed unanimously, with the exception of the vote of the city of Raleigh.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, subsequently held, Kemp P. Battle, Esq., resigned his position as President and Gen. W. R. Cox was chosen to fill the vacancy.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

The President's Forthcoming Peace Proclamation---The Radicals and the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The day is not far distant when the President will issue a proclamation that peace exists throughout the country, and that all the States and the territories are in loyal relations to the General Government.

The leading editorial of the Chronicle this morning, is generally regarded among keen politicians as a breaking from the President. It is a rather slight indication, like a struggling of light through clouds and darkness, yet enough to the closely observant. Indeed, such are now the generally believed statements, as to the President's view, that it is transparent hypocrisy and utter falsehood for the radicals to do otherwise than to oppose him. While the leading radicals stimulate confidence in this cause, it is known their force is demoralized. If the dictation of the Jacobinical committee upon reconstruction does not entirely succeed now, how will it be when the voices of the discontented tax-payers shall thunder in their ears?

PARDONS.

The President has not signified his intention of considering all pardons that are petitioned for as yet, although he has acted upon some few special cases. Yesterday, pardons were granted to twenty-four Alabamians, two Texans, and one Missourian; all of the $20,000 class.—Among those pardoned yesterday was Elias Rector, of Arkansas, at one time Superintendent of Indian affairs.

To-day, a pardon was issued to George M. Fitzhugh, of West Virginia. About three hundred petitions for pardon, from North Carolinians, forwarded by Governor Worth, are now ready to be acted upon, and will probably be granted to-morrow.—Star of Tuesday Evening.

THE PRESIDENT AND GEN. TERRY'S ORDER.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, under date of January 30th, says:

The President refuses to interfere with Gen. Terry's recent orders annulling the vagrant act passed by the Virginia Legislature. Several of the Virginia delegation called upon the President, to inquire as to the report telegraphed from New York relative to the deposition of Gov. Pierpoint, and were informed by him that there was not the slightest particle of truth in it.

Senator Dixon of Connecticut is the distinguished Senator with whom the President held the interesting conversation which was given to the country a few days back.

The President has received a petition from citizens of Alexandria asking him to abolish legal government in Virginia and send to Richmond a Pacha of three tails.

Bishop Lay writes to the Christian Intelligencer that he is prepared to nominate several missionary for Arkansas and Indian Territory. He would be glad to correspond with any clergyman who may be inclined to enter this field.

COLORED SUFFRAGE.—At a late convention of freedmen at Augusta, Ga., resolutions were adopted opposing universal suffrage, but favoring suffrage for such blacks as can read and write.

The New York Tribune expresses its surprise that Southern men should hesitate to commit perjury for the sake of holding office under the General Government. No doubt it appears strange to the Tribune.

Senator Fessenden said in debate, on Tuesday, that "the great mass of the Democratic party fought bravely to sustain the Government throughout the war in a manly and patriotic way."

From New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

Advices from Matamoras, via New Orleans, state that Bagdad had been abandoned by the Liberals, and the United States troops, and Imperials re-entered. Nearly all the merchants of Matamoras both Mexican, and foreign, have published solemn protest against the course of the army, officially on the Texas side, charging them with the responsibilities of the troubles on that Frontier, on account of their aid afforded the Jaurez party. The foreign vice counsels, resident at Matamoras certify to the truth of the protest.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

In the House to-day, Maj. Gens. Meade and Thomas appeared on the floor, and recess was taken, the Speaker, in a few complimentary remarks, introduced them to that body. They returned their thanks in short speeches, and on motion of one of the members, three cheers were given by the House and gallaries.

The President transmitted a message to the Senate, nominating a Minister to the Republic of St. Domingo, as he believed the commercial interest of the country would be benefited by the recognition, whilst such would accord with the settled policy of the United States.

NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 20th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties, N. C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.

I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

—ALSO—

five hundred barrels of Corn, a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.

All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.

This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road being only three miles from one station and six from another. Location remarkably healthy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia, and Nervous Irritability. Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best and there is of them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

Forget not the Field.

BY THOMAS MOORE.

Forget not the field where they perished,
The truest, the last of the brave,
All gone—and the bright hope we cherish'd
Gone with them, and quench'd in the grave.

Oh! could we from death but recover
Those hearts as they bounded before,
In the face of high heav'n to fight over
That combat for freedom once more.

Could the chain for an instant be riven
Which tyranny flung round us then,
No, 'tis not in Man, nor in Heaven,
To let tyranny bind it again!

And 'tis past—and tho' blazon'd in story
The name of our victor may be,
Accurst is the March of that glory
Which treads o'er the hearts of the free.

Full dearer the grave or the prison,
Illumed by one patriot name,
Than the trophies of all, who have risen
On liberty's ruins to fame.

CLIPPINGS.

Men make fun of the ladies' water-falls.—Why don't they take revenge on the gentlemens brandyfalls?

Josh Billings says, "When once axed if I believed in the final salvation of men, I sed yes, but let me pick the men."

There was once a man so intensely polite that, as he passed a hen on her nest he said: "Don't rise, madam."

Mrs. Partington says that Ike has bought a horse so spiritous that he always goes off on a decanter.

Blessed be heaven for the gift of thumbs. If a man has nothing else to do, he can suck them.

Wedlock has been compared to bird-cages; the birds without peck to get in, and those within sometimes peck to get out.

If a lady marries a man against your advice, take ours, and don't call on her till the honeymoon is over.

When we are alone, we have our thoughts to watch; in our families, our tempers, and in society our tongue.

A little fellow going to Church for the first time, where the pews were very high, was asked on coming out what he did in church, when he replied, "I went into a cupboard and took a seat on the shelf."

An editor, describing the doings of a mad dog, says: "He bit the cow in the tail which has since died." This was very unfortunate for the tail; but we naturally feel some interest to know what became of the cow.

A doctor up town gave a prescription to a lady a few days ago—"A new bonnet, a new shawl, and a pair of gaiter boots." The lady recovered immediately.

THE OPINION OF A PETERSBURG DARKEY.—"Wish Mass Lincoln had kept his freedom. It's just like Confederik money—more you get on it, the less count is it."—Index.

A lover wrote thus to his sweetheart: "Delectable darling, you are so dulcet that honesty would blush in your presence, and green treacle stand appalled."

A Spanish gentleman studying English in Bridgeport, Conn., being at the tea table and desiring to be helped to some sliced tongue—in doubt as to the term, hesitated a moment, and then said: "I will thank you, Miss, to pass me language."

The word Humbug is a corruption of "Hamburg," and originated during the great war on the continent of Europe, when so many false reports and lying bulletins were fabricated at Hamburg, that at last, when any one wished to signify his disbelief of a report; he would say, "you got that from Hamburg," or "that is Hamburg," and finally it was corrupted to humbug," and became a common expression for a cheat or an imposture.—Old Guard.

An attorney at law who wished to show his smartness by quizzing an old farmer from the interior of New Jersey, began by asking him if there were any girls in his neighborhood.

"Yes," replied the old man, "there's a dreadful sight of 'em—so many that there ain't half enough of respectable husbands for 'em all, and some of 'em are beginning to take up with lawyers." The attorney didn't follow up the subject.

WHO IS THE PRESIDENT?—There is a general desire to know who is President of the United States. Is it Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, or Thad. Stevens, of Pennsylvania? To whose cabinet does Secretary Stanton belong? To that of President Johnson or to that of President Stevens?—Does Congress consider Johnson or Stevens the President? That is the question. —N. Y. Herald 25th.

BEAUTIFUL ANSWERS.—A pupil of the Abbe Sicord gave the following extraordinary answers:

"What is gratitude?"

"Gratitude is the memory of the heart."

"What is hope?"

"Hope is the blossom of happiness."

"What is the difference between hope and desire?"

"Desire is a tree in leaf, hope is a tree in flower, and enjoyment is a tree in fruit."

"What is eternity?"

"A day without a yesterday or to-morrow—a line that has no end."

"What is God?"

"The necessary being, the sun of eternity, the machinist of nature, the eye of justice, the watchmaker of the universe, the soul of the world."

Elder Knapp, speaking of long prayers, once said: "When Peter was endeavoring to walk upon the water to meet his Master, and was about sinking, had his supplication been a long as the introduction to one of our modern prayers before he got through he would have been fifty feet under water."

Grandma—"Well, Charley, and what have you been learning to-day?"

Charley—"Pneumatics, grama; I can tell you such a dodge! If I was to place you under a glass receiver, and exhaust the air, all your wrinkles would come out as smooth as gran'pa's head!"

"When are you going to commence the pork business!" asked a person of another who had a sty on his eye.

"Explain yourself, said the the afflicted gentleman.

"Why, I see that you have your sty quite ready."

"True" was the reply, "and I've one hog in my eye now."

OUR DAY.

ABOUT the 1st of February next, we will commence the publication of a Literary Eclectic Paper styled to be issued, once a week, simultaneously in the cities of New York and Norfolk.

OUR DAY,

Each number will consist of 16 octavo pages, with 2 columns to each page, printed on excellent paper, and in a superior style of typography.

Unencumbered by sectarianism or party strife, it shall be our fixed purpose to present nothing but the choicest fruits and flowers of Literature, culled from the gardens of the Old and New World.

We would particularly invite the attention of our friends in that section which for the past four years has been without a current Literature, while we promise to make our Paper acceptable to every reader in our common country.

Our terms for a single subscription will be:

For three months	$1 25
For six months	2 25
For one year	4 00

Payable in advance.

For single subscriptions and advertising, apply to

CIRCULAR.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume, the result of the lucubrations of many years, entitled a "Short Treatise on Chronology in General, and especially on Classical Chronology." The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a collection of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to prepare a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

The FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature, character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred; the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs are disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and of China; the principles of the art of mnemotechny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and profitable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning: and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature, have heretofore been few, and for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and, with the excellent Latin Grammar and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Bingham—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for their author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—OUR contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars, or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of single copies delivered will be $2.50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscript on lists will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured, and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

WE STILL CONTINUE TO SELL BOOKS AND Stationery, and all other goods in our line. We cannot sell at cost. If we do so, we shall soon be unable to buy other Goods. We have been trading in our line for several years. Our friends have always patronized us largely, for which we are thankful. We have always tried to make a living profit on our Goods, and at the same time to give general satisfaction to our customers. We intend still to follow the same rule, which we think fair and honorable. Such books as we do not have on hand we will order for our friends.

Among our late arrivals we have Methodist Hymn Books, Episcopal Prayer Books, Illustrated Children's Books in great variety, Photographs of Southern Generals, and Photograph Albums

We have also a great variety of Common and Fine Bibles and Testaments. Also a large variety of Sheet Music.

We try to keep all School Books wanted by Teachers, to whom we sell at a liberal discount.

Call and examine our stock before buying elsewhere.

We are prepared to do the best BOOK BINDING in the neatest style at short notice.

We want to trade with our friends for years to come, hence we will sell as cheap as we can under the circumstances

HOUSE AND PLATE SAFES.

TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the 'Genuine Salamanders' has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

Every Merchant should have one of these cheap and secure Safes.

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is as well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land, being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

THE UNDERSIGNED RESPECTFULLY announce to the public that they have formed a co partnership for the purpose of carrying on the BOOK AND JOB PRINTING BUSINESS in all its branches.

Each member of the firm is a practical printer, and, with an experience of twenty years each, they confidently appeal to the people of their native State for a liberal share of patronage.

They have one of the Largest Printing Establishments
in the State, and execute their own work, which, for neatness and cheapness, cannot be excelled in the South

The senior member of the firm has been for a number of years superintendent of the Printing Office of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind which has always sustained a high reputation for neat and tasty printing.

They are prepared to execute, at short notice,
